

KASBAH TAMADOT

Announces Launch of New Luxury Berber Tented Suites

October, 2008. Kasbah Tamadot, Sir Richard Branson's Moroccan retreat in the Atlas Mountains, is delighted to announce the addition of six new luxurious Berber Tented suites, with private plunge pools, to its stunning property.

To celebrate, Kasbah Tamadot is offering a four nights for the price of three special offer for all guests who stay in the new Berber Tented suites until 18th December 2008.

Perched on the hillside, five minutes from the main Kasbah, the luxurious Berber Tented suites offer stunning views of the Atlas Mountains. Decorated with traditional Moroccan inspired furnishings, with a contemporary twist, each tented suite features a King-size bed, large soaking tubs with mountain views, and a terrace with private plunge pool, sun loungers and outdoor dining area. They also all come equipped with split air conditioning units to keep cool in summer and warm in winter!

Accessed through the herb and vegetable garden, the tented suites are perfect for those looking for a little more privacy. Each tented suite has its own Berber name, every one with a special meaning - Afoulky (Beauty), Addou (Wind), Amalou (Shade), Azoka (Tree), Adrar (Mountain) and Azenzer (Ray of Sun).

Part of the Virgin Limited Edition collection, Kasbah Tamadot was bought by Sir Richard Branson in 1998, during one of his famous ballooning expeditions. Kasbah Tamadot is a magical walled building and divine hideaway set on the side of the rolling hills of the Atlas Mountains, less than an hours drive from Marrakech. Most staff members are employed from the nearby villages, giving guests the feeling of staying in a Moroccan home rather than a hotel. Kasbah Tamadot recently appointed husband and wife team Kenton and Leesa Jones as new General Managers.
