WHAT ABOUT SLEEPING?

Why compromise on comfort when you're at sea?! With space onboard for up to 12 guests, choose from one of four stylish cabins, each with an en-suite bathroom, flat screen TV and iPod docking station, or the comfy saloon area with double bed and a privacy screen at night. And if you're feeling a little adventurous... why not sleep outdoors on the upper deck under the stars?!

The master cabin offers stunning views of the ocean through large windows. This room has ample storage space along with a comfy queen size bed, private bathroom with a double basin and shower room. If a lie in is the perfect start to your day, you can snuggle up in bed and switch on your 52 inch LCD TV, watch a DVD or listen to a selection of music through the sound system. Guests can also hook up their iPods for hours of listening pleasure.

Two double VIP guest cabins can be arranged into twins and both have a junior version of the Master Suite's bathroom with shower room. Other features include a 26 inch LCD TV, DVD and sound system. The double guest cabin, which can not be split into a twin, offers an en-suite, DVD and sound system. All enclosed guest cabins are fully air conditioned. In the evenings an area of the main saloon can be converted to sleep an additional two people, with a privacy screen, separate toilet and shower.

WHAT ARE THE CHARTER RATES?

Caribbean

2011: The weekly rate is US$100,000

Please note high season rates may apply over Christmas and New Year.

Advanced Provisioning Allowance

An advance provisioning allowance (APA) equivalent to approximately 25% of the weekly rate will be charged additionally to cover the operating expenses of the charter such as fuel, food, port fees, harbour dues, customs, water and electricity, personal laundry, all provisions, wines, beers, spirits, soft drinks and consumables for your party. You're welcome to view the APA tally onboard at any time and when your cruise comes to an end, the captain will work out if you owe us, or we owe you!

WHAT'S THE FOOD AND DRINK LIKE ON NECKER BELLE?

Well... the chef has been known to get a standing ovation after dinner! Whether you prefer formal or informal dining, fine cuisine onboard Necker Belle is a given. It's up to you if you'd like to dine on lobster and caviar or sausage and mash! We stock a fine range of wines stored in the vessel's own temperature controlled stores, top quality spirits, beers and excellent house champagne. Dining can be on the aft or upper deck outside, themed or traditional - or a mixture of everything! Before you board we'll send you a preference sheet so you can let us know if you would like something special or just if you have any particular favourites.
