Ulusaba Private Game Reserve, Sabi Sand Private Game Reserve

If there were three words that could describe your dream wedding destination, heaven on earth would arguably suffice. If you're the kind of person that wants absolutely nothing less for your wedding, then Sir Richard Branson's Ulusaba Private Game Reserve would definitely be it.

As can be expected from one of Virgin Limited Edition's award-winning collection of retreats, Ulusaba redefines the rules as it takes a step away from the traditional colonial safari style. Ulusaba offers swimming pools, tennis courts, gyms, a wine cellar, Aroma Boma spas with panoramic views and a Bush Observatory perfect for stargazing. With so much to see and do couples will need to plan their wedding accordingly so they can enjoy safari walks, moon-lit bush dinners and the twice daily game drives.

Spoilt for choice, bridal couples can choose from simple to lavish wedding packages. The Pure Romance package is tailored for the couple who want a private, romantic wedding without too much fuss, while Simply Exclusive is ideal for those who want to bring their friends and family along, but don't want all the bells and whistles. For couples who necessitate a lot of pampering, and a private and romantic wedding, Pure Indulgence is the package to choose. Premium Exclusive, the most extravagant, is for those who want to celebrate with their friends and family with all the trimmings.

Ulusaba can be hired as a whole, lodges can be hired exclusively or individual rooms can be booked. The two lodges, Rock Lodge and Safari Lodge, offer unique experiences and guests are encouraged to split their time between the two. Safari Lodge is built along the banks of the Mabrak riverbed and has swing bridges separating the tree house rooms, with elephants, lion and other wildlife passing by. Perched high on the summit of a koppie, Rock Lodge offers panoramic views of the below while wildlife roam within. Children of all ages are accommodated at Ulusaba but must be 12 or above to stay at Safari Lodge.

A few of the standard package features

- 3 nights' accommodation for bride & groom
- All meals including special wedding meals & beverages
- Unlimited French champagne
- The ceremony at any of the reserve's locations (transfers included)

No request is too big for the staff at Ulusaba, who can arrange everything from extra flowers, decor, hairdressing and flights, to table gifts, photography and traditional African entertainment; Ulusaba is renowned for its many little extras and constant surprises; so the verdict remains: heaven on earth for your wedding!
